DIVIDEND WEEK STARTED WITH THIS MORNING

Security State Bank of Brainerd Will Give a $25.00 Saving Account to the Contestant Who Turns in the Largest Number of New Yearly Subscriptions this Week. New Yearly Subscriptions do Double Duty for the Next Six Days. Enter Your Name Today. Its Not Too Late.

This morning started "DIVIDEND WEEK" in the Dispatch's Mammoth Contest. The reason the Dispatch chose to call this Dividend Week is because they are announcing how it is possible for the candidates to earn an extra dividend while piling up their votes for the Mammoth, Capital, Grand and District Prizes, besides increasing their count for the yearly prize. This dividend offer in a nutshell is as follows:

The Security State bank of Brainerd will start a Savings Account of $25 for the candidates who turn in the largest number of new yearly subscriptions this week. Did you ever hear of anything like it before? Never has it been the opportunity of any newspaper in the Northland to offer such an inducement as this. The number of yearly subscriptions that any one candidate may turn in is not limited. Every two year subscription will count as five one-year. Regular votes will be issued on each and every subscription the same as usual, on every three months, six months, one year, two year and five year subscriptions.

This is your opportunity and the best one of its kind that will be offered during the contest to pile up your count for the yearly prize, the $50 Birdseye Maple Bed-room Suite, and your votes for the Mammoth, Capital, Grand and District Prizes. This is also an opportunity to build up a good substantial reserve for the last days of the contest, as you can poll your votes when you wish.

VISITS BANK.

This morning the Contest Manager visited the Security State bank of Brainerd and had the pleasure of being shown the inside workings of the institution by Mr. E. A. Storck, cashier, and it was one of the most interesting and instructive hours he ever spent.

What interested him most were the vaults and the safe, that guards the hoard of money that the Security State bank carries on deposit for the people of Brainerd and vicinity.

Mr. Storck took the contest manager into the brick vault that measures twelve by twelve feet. Inside of this he saw the safety deposit boxes and the racks on files for the books and papers of the institution, while in one end stood the Manganese steel safe built of the hardest metal (Manganese steel) known to man, with its double time lock system, one of the best and most modern manufactured. The reason it is called the double time lock system is that the two locks operate the levers on the outer door of the safe instead of one, as is generally used. The locks are so arranged that in case one fails to perform its task the other will. This double time lock locks the outer door of the safe so that it is impossible for any one to open it until the time set for it to open arrives.

The safe in which the Security State bank stores its thousands of dollars of deposits is built of solid Manganese steel in two pieces. The body of the safe or jacket, as it is commonly known, is one block of solid Manganese steel while the door is of one piece, similar. The technical term used in describing the locking device on this door is screw interlocking locks with shooting expansion bolts. When the doors of the safe are locked it is impossible to find the aperture, crack or seam anywhere for a crackman to pour in "soup," (as soap and nitroglycerine as used by modern crackmen is called.) The interior of the safe contains two apartments for storing currency, each about ten inches square. This safe was manufactured especially for the Security State bank by the Manganese Steel Safe company of New York, and is guaranteed by them.

Aside from the burglar proof vault and safe the Security State Bank has to guard its depositors money, they also are members of the American Bankers Protective Association and the Minnesota Bankers Protective Association, which also guarantees depositors of the institution from loss by burglary.

WIN THE YEARLY PRIZE

"Dividend Week" gives you your opportunity to win the yearly prize that will be awarded to the lady who turns in the largest amount of yearly subscriptions during the contest. This handsome bedroom suite, valued

Easy Profit Week has passed into history and with it, the first and last offer of this kind that will be made during this contest. Many of the contestants were successful in securing one or more books during the week. Miss Gertrude Peterson leads the contest today with 14256 votes. Miss Bessie Paine, with 13145 being a close second. Only 110 votes separates them. Miss Kathleen Rounds holds third place with 12930. Miss Bertha Mahlum fourth with 11530. Judging from the way the votes are piling in the battle is on fast and furious. Are you among the leaders? If not, Dividend Week gives you your opportunity. A great opportunity! This is a double header. Win the yearly prize and the $25 Savings Account that the Security State bank of Brainerd offers to the lady turning in the largest number of new yearly subscriptions this week.

at $60, and on display at D. M. Clark & Co's. store, is made of the most select Birdseye Maple and is artistic and of the latest design and fit for the palace of a king.

When you want the best for general utility, style and tastiness a Birdseye Maple Bedroom set is just the right thing.

ARE YOU FORGETTING THE DISTRICT PRIZES

Are you forgetting the fact that in every one of the four districts that the city of Brainerd is divided into and the one outside of it there are $85 in prizes to be awarded, not considering the automobile, the piano, the diamond ring or the yearly prize. After these have been awarded the lady having the highest number of votes in each of these districts will receive her choice of a $60 scholarship either musical or business.

The value of a systematic training is incomprehensible. It depends on the person as to what its real wealth is. A bright person with a good business education is capable in this commercial age of earning most any amount imaginable for his service. Trained men and women are in demand everywhere. Are you numbered among them? If not The Dispatch is holding the door of opportunity open for you. Are you going to enter? If so call up the contest manager today and he will furnish you all the detailed information necessary.

After the scholarships are awarded the lady having the next highest standing will receive one of the $25 watches on display in C. L. Burnett's store.

There is nothing that has the intrinsic value and is so much a necessity in this day and age of progress as a watch. One might say our destiny is mapped out and guided by its hand. At birth our entrance into the world is marked by it and from that moment our existence revolves around it. It starts with breakfast at 8, lunch at 12 and dinner at 7. If we have a business or social engagement it again appoints itself as the informer of it. Every event, great or small, harrowing or enjoyable, we time by that indispensable, never-ceasing little machine we call a watch, whose intrinsic workings are as far from the comprehension of the ordinary individual as the flying machine. A good watch is like a good mother—something hard to do without and something we all should have.

Who of us has not sat by grandmother's knee while she told us and told us stories that revolve around the old silver watch that she values beyond all earthly treasures. Tells us of the day she got it, tells how grand-dad bought it and when mother, uncle and aunt's entrance into this world was marked by its magic hand. Then take the old watch into your hand and look at the quaint old fashioned letters that tells the maker's name, and there engraved you will find "Molly Stark, Hampton."

FRANK GOTCH.

Iowa Wrestler Defeats the Pole and Retains His Title.

TWENTY-EIGHT MEN TO DIE

Russian Robbers Are Sentenced to Death.

St. Petersburg, June 2.—Penalties of death or life imprisonment have been meted out to men and women members of the youthful band that for eighteen months during 1907-9 committed a series of robberies and murders that kept the residents of a considerable territory in a state of terror.

Twenty-nine men, ranging in age from eighteen to twenty-five years, were sentenced to death. Eight women escaped hanging because of their sex, but were sentenced to imprisonment for life. A fifteen-year-old boy who was shown to have been an active outlaw was sent to the colony for juvenile offenders.

The most sensational feat of this band was accomplished Aug. 23, 1907, when they held up a train on the Coast railroad and robbed the cashier of the Sestraretzka imperial arms factory of $6,500. Colonel Sudokin, who sat near the cashier, was fatally shot.

MANY DELEGATES ATTEND SMOKER

Northern Minnesota Boosters Meet in Crookston.

Crookston, Minn., June 2.—Northern Minnesota was pushed ahead a few paces by the enthusiastic smoker which opened the meeting of the Northern Minnesota Development association here. Hundreds of delegates and visitors crowded the assembly hall of the Commercial club, where the smoker was held. "Everybody boosts for Northern Minnesota" was the slogan. Every allusion to the future of the state, its opportunities and resources, was greeted with outbursts of wild applause by the delegates.

J. E. O'Brien, president of the Commercial club, presided. Mr. O'Brien, in calling the meeting to order, briefly alluded to the purpose of the association and declared that it was impossible to estimate the advantage which would accrue to the state at large from the work of the association. "There is no place in existence for a knocker," said L. W. Bills of Park Rapids. "He can't get into heaven and they don't need him in the other place. If you have a knocker in your community hypnotize him, chloroform him, dynamite him, but get him out. But welcome the booster, even though he hasn't a cent. He is an asset of the city, state, country. That is the secret of the success of this association, it is composed of boosters."

To Learn and Help.

"St. Paul is not coming here to ask you for anything," said Colonel J. H. Davidson of the St. Paul Commercial club. "Our delegation is coming to learn and to help, and I want to say to you that when you want anything from the state legislature St. Paul will help you get it. There is considerable talk about reappointment. I don't know of any one who is knocking the idea. We all want it following the present census."

"The men from Minneapolis are here to learn," said MacMartin of the Minneapolis Publicity club. "We are here to learn, and then to help you with our advice, our votes and our money."

"I am one of the young men who believe in Theodore Roosevelt and in most of the things he advocates," said J. P. Boyle of Eveleth. "I believe in the young man who does things, and I want to pay my respects to the young man of Bemidji who started this movement." W. R. McKenzie is the man Mr. Boyle referred to.

The city was brilliantly illuminated with red, white and blue lights. The entire population of the town was on the street to listen to the visiting and home bands.

Wound Causes Lockjaw.

Fairmount, Minn., June 2.—Charles Scott, aged thirty years, who was accidentally wounded in the thigh by a bullet from a small caliber rifle, is dead of lockjaw.

Minnesota Doctor Honored.

New York, June 2.—An honorary degree of doctor of science has been conferred upon William James Mayo of Rochester, Minn., by Columbia college.

FRANK GOTCH RETAINS TITLE

Iowa Wrestler Easily Defeats Stanislaus Zbyszko.

WINS IN STRAIGHT FALLS

American Pins the Pole's Shoulders to the Mat in the First Bout in Less Than Seven Seconds—Puts the Foreigner Down for the Second and Deciding Fall in a Little Over Twenty-seven Minutes.

Chicago, June 2.—Frank Gotch of Humboldt, Ia., successfully defended his title as wrestling champion of the world by easily defeating Stanislaus Zbyszko, the Polish champion, in straight falls at the Coliseum. Gotch outclassed his bulkier opponent in every department of the game. After winning the first fall in the phenomenal time of six and one-quarter seconds it was only a question of how long the Pole could hold out against the brilliant and varied attack of his more skilled rival.

The immense crowd had hardly realized that the great match had started before Referee Dick Fleming slapped Gotch on the back and declared him the winner of the first fall. The hold which sent the Pole down was a bar arm and half Nelson.

The first fall was so short that there was little intermission before the men faced each other for the second time.

Warned by his sudden downfall Zbyszko was more cautious and it took Gotch 27 minutes and 36 seconds to win the match with a bar arm and wrist lock.

Gotch Without an Equal.

The result of the battle showed that the Iowa farmer is still without an equal in the wrestling game. At no time was he in any danger and when the Pole would secure any advantage Gotch would quickly break his hold and jump to his feet. The American showed far greater knowledge of the mat game than did his more deliberate and slow thinking victim. Gotch would forestall his opponent at every turn. And it was worse than hopeless for the Pole to attempt to assume the aggressive.

The result demonstrated that Gotch must have been out of condition when he lost the handicap match to Zbyszko at Buffalo. In that encounter Gotch agreed to throw the Pole twice within the hour, but failed to get even one fall in the allotted time.

The American was tendered a great ovation at the conclusion of the match. He was borne from the ring on the shoulders of a howling mob, while the defeated Pole, with a look of pain on his face, was barely able to stagger down the ladder from the raised square.

Referee Fleming said that there was no doubt in his mind but that the first fall was clean and decisive. A feeble protest was registered by Jack Herman, the Pole's manager, but he apparently realized that he had no grounds on which to base it.

IT TRYING TO SAVE CHILD

Minnesota Woman Killed by a Street Car.

Winona, Minn., June 2.—Mrs. William Redmann, twenty-four years old, lost her life in attempting to save her two-year-old child from being crushed to death under the wheels of a street car in front of her home.

The mother was at work on the side porch of her residence and the child was playing in the street, when the little one ran directly in the path of a rapidly approaching car. The woman ran hysterically into the street in an effort to save the baby.

But at the same moment the motor-man saw the child. He reversed the power instantly, climbed to the front of the coach and grasped the little one, who was practically uninjured, from the fender.

The frantic mother, however, stumbled and pitched head foremost under the car between the front and rear trucks. The wheels passed over the neck and her head was practically severed from the body. Death was instantaneous.

NO REPLY FROM ROOSEVELT

So Date of Conservation Congress Is Not Settled.

Washington, June 2.—Gifford Pinchot has not received a reply to the telegram he sent to Theodore Roosevelt asking him to indicate a date in September when it would be most convenient for him to address the conservation congress to be held in St. Paul. Until Mr. Roosevelt has been heard from on this point the convention officers will be unable to make known the exact date of the St. Paul congress.

Laborer Killed by Log.

St. Paul, June 2.—Lying unconscious under a log which had apparently rolled upon him from a nearby pile, Charles Newstrom, forty-six years old, was found in the lumber yards of Brooks Brothers by fellow laborers. He died later at St. Joseph's hospital, where he had been taken. A strange side to the accident is that, though several men were working in the yard at the time, no one seemed to have seen the log fall, and it is not known how it came to be dislodged.

LADY FRANCES COOK.

Writ of Habeas Corpus is Issued for Suffragette.

WRIT ISSUED FOR LADY COOK

Suffragette's Sister Later Withdraws Complaint.

New York, June 2.—A writ of habeas corpus for Lady Frances Cook, the suffragette, better remembered as Tennessee Claflin, was granted in the state supreme court to Mary Sparr, Lady Cook's sister. The petition recited that Lady Cook, who was old and feeble, was restrained of her liberty by John Floyd Hume and his wife Mabel; that Lady Cook was being secreted from her relatives and that she was allowed to spend no money on her own needs.

Mr. Hume, who is a newspaper man, with whom Lady Cook sometimes makes her home when she is in this country, said that Lady Cook's estate, which she inherited from her husband, is strictly entailed under the laws of England and that not a penny of it could be diverted from the family.

The complaint was subsequently withdrawn when Millard F. Sparr, a son of the complainant and nephew of Lady Cook, informed his mother that she was wholly in error. Inasmuch as Millard Sparr is Lady Cook's business manager his explanations were accepted.

BODY OF BUT ONE VICTIM RECOVERED

Three Lives Lost in Fire at Rochester, Minn.

Rochester, Minn., June 2.—A disastrous fire visited this city, in which it is thought three lives were lost, but as yet only one body has been recovered. The fire started in the Chicago Great Western stock yards and for a time one section of this city was threatened. The origin of the fire is a mystery, but it is thought it received its start from the victim of the flames and his companions.

So far as can be learned four men in a state of intoxication went into the sheds and went to sleep. The smoking of the men caused the blaze.

According to one who gives his name as Cole and who was with the men, his brother, George R. Cole, was one of the victims. The metal parts of a pocketbook have been found and Cole says it was the property of his brother. A search is being made for the other two bodies.

The stock yards of the Chicago Great Western are completely in ruins, the loss of which cannot be estimated by B. J. Degroot, superintendent of this division, but it will reach thousands. A number of cattle belonging to H. A. Huney, a Rochester stock buyer, were also consumed in the conflagration.

MANY REMAIN ON THE FARM

Few Agricultural School Graduates Abandon Regular Work.

Fargo, N. D., June 2.—President Worst of the North Dakota agricultural college points to the fact that few of the graduates of the different courses in the school, who come directly from the farms, pursue other courses than farming or teaching others the science of the profession.

There is a short term course in the winter months attended by from 100 to 300 farmers. These all return to their regular work at the close of the term. The courses for these students are varied and appeal to those interested in many branches of farm work.

Of the thirty-four graduates in the regular courses at the commencement exercises next week, several are from villages and towns; even some of those are taking the agricultural courses. There are eleven in the farm husbandry course, every one of whom will return to their farms and put into actual practice the knowledge they have secured here.

In the agricultural four-year course, there are four graduates. Two become instructors in agricultural schools, another becomes a member of the state soil survey corps of the state, and another has decided to engage temporarily in the insurance business, being the only one to fall by the wayside.

There are seven graduates in the domestic science department. Three will teach domestic service in high schools and four will return for their courses at the agricultural college.

RAILROADS TO FIGHT THE SUIT

ARE LIKELY TO GO IN A BODY

House Progressives Plan to Meet Roosevelt in New York.

Washington, June 2.—So confident are the progressive Republicans in the house that they will be endorsed by Colonel Roosevelt that it is not improbable that they will go to New York in a body to join in the monster welcome which is being arranged for the former president. It was learned that so many of the insurgents had individually made arrangements to be in New York June 18, that in talking the matter over they discussed the advisability of going in a body.

There is an air of significant confidence among the house progressives as the date of Colonel Roosevelt's return draws near. Several of them declare that the success of Gifford Pinchot's journey to Europe for the purpose of seeing Colonel Roosevelt is quite as much as they could have hoped for.

RAILROAD BILL IS AMENDED

Important Changes Are Made in the Measure.

OFFERED BY SENATOR BURTON

Ohio Man Leaves the Republican Regulars and Advocates Measures Favored by the Progressives—Provision for Rate Regulation to Protect Water Competition Adopted by the Senate.

Washington, June 2.—Eleventh hour converts to more drastic railroad regulation than is desired by the senate leaders came to the front in the senate with amendments and speeches in behalf of the shippers and public generally. Most of the amendments failed, but two important ones succeeded in getting into the bill. Both of these were offered by Senator Burton of Ohio, who up to this time has voted consistently with the senate regulars. Both of the Burton amendments are regarded as of importance, but one is designed to have a far-reaching effect. It provides that where a railroad reduces its rates to meet or destroy water competition the road may not increase such rate without the permission of the interstate commerce commission. This amendment is believed to be beyond the reach of the conferees, as the house has adopted practically the same provision.

The second Burton amendment prohibits a railroad or its agents to disclose information to others about the shipments or business it has with other shippers. This amendment is designed to reach the great evil by which the Standard Oil company, according to the testimony developed in the Ohio prosecutions, succeeded in obtaining information about the business of its rivals by means of which it was enabled to crush competitors. Both amendments were pressed so vigorously and obtained such support in debate that they were adopted without roll call.

The two most important amendments that were defeated were that by Senator La Follette for physical valuation of railroads and that by Senator Bailey for modification of the commodity clause to meet the defects which the supreme court pointed out in its recent decision on that provision of the rate bill. Both of these amendments will be reoffered when the bill is considered by the senate, its discussion and perfection now being conducted in committee of the whole.

POSTAL SAVINGS BANK BILL

House Republicans Favor Its Prompt Passage.

Washington, June 2.—The Republicans of the house went squarely on record for prompt passage of the postal savings bank bill, which is part of President Taft's legislative program. The bill was finally agreed on at a two hours' caucus, at which the following resolution, submitted by Representative Tawney of Minnesota, was adopted:

"Resolved, That the postal savings bank bill agreed on by this caucus be and the same is hereby adopted, that the same be reported by the committee on postoffices and postroads and that it is the sense of this caucus that a rule be reported from the committee on rules for its consideration in the house."

The caucus was largely attended and the only bolt was made by Representative Southwick of New York, who vehemently denounced the bill as radically socialistic and withdrew, declaring his intention to fight it on the floor of the house.

Stranger Commits Suicide.

St. Paul, June 2.—A stranger whose name is thought to be John Trophie, from papers found in his pockets, committed suicide by shooting himself in the head. The deed was committed at the corner of Pine and East Ninth street, behind a pile of boxes.

Attorneys Will Meet to Outline Plan of Action.

WILL BE BITTERLY CONTESTED

Attorney General Wickersham's Petition for a Government Injunction Will Be Fought by the Transportation Companies of the West—Railroad Officials Taken by Surprise and Were Unprepared for Action.

St. Louis, June 2.—Within the next two days attorneys for the twenty-five Western railroads temporarily restrained from advancing freight rates by Judge David P. Dyer of the United States circuit court will meet here to plan an answer to the government's suit. It was announced by an attorney for one of the roads that Attorney General Wickersham's petition for a government injunction will be bitterly contested.

The principal fight will be made on the contention that there is an agreement among the railroads to advance freight rates in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law. If any agreement at all is admitted, the railroad companies will contend that it is legal in every respect and that it is necessary because of present industrial conditions to protect the interests of the general public.

The fact that the railroads are members of the Western trunk line committee, an official said, does not indicate that they are in an agreement, because the schedule of rates promulgated by the Western trunk line committee is not binding on the different members without their express consent.

Officials Greatly Surprised.

It was stated at various railroad headquarters that the enjoined rates might have been collected at distant points Wednesday, because rescinding orders had not had time to reach them. The officials, so far as they could, obeyed the court's order, even before service was made. They were greatly surprised at the secrecy with which the government's petition was filed in the courts here and at Hannibal and were unprepared for action.

Officials said that most of the railroads had anticipated the increased revenue which the new rates would bring and had planned extensive improvements, which probably would be held up pending litigation. One broker in railroad supplies said that already he had received several cancellations on orders from the railroads affected by the injunction.

Frederick N. Judson said he had been retained as special counsel in the rate case and as such would be an assistant to the attorney general.

In an effort to restore the rates enjoined the railroads may come into court with a petition to dissolve the injunction. Failing in this, the petition of the government for a permanent injunction will probably come up July 5, on which date the order to be served by marshals has been made returnable.

HAD ADVANCE INFORMATION

Somebody in Washington Made a Killing in Wall Street.

Washington, June 2.—Washington made a killing in Wall street as a result of the sharp decline in stocks following the announcement that the government would bring suit for a temporary restraining order against twenty-five of the leading railroads that had proposed a general increase of freight rates to be effective Wednesday. General surprise was expressed when it was learned that a veritable avalanche of selling orders had been sent from Washington to New York immediately after the opening of the stock exchange and fully two hours in advance of the official announcement of the projected government action. It was apparent that some one had had advance information of a most valuable nature and had proceeded to coin it and clean up handsome profits.

Hose Cart Injures Two.

Hettinger, N. D., June 2.—Fire broke out in the rear of the Palace meat market. While the hose cart was being driven to the scene of the fire the cart gave a lurch to one side and struck C. M. Johnson, a druggist, above the ankle, breaking his leg. Jens Jensen, agent here for the Standard Oil company, also was severely injured.

Steel Trust in Canada.

Hamilton, Ont., June 2.—Negotiations which have been pending for several months resulted in the formation here of the Canada Steel company, capitalized at $25,000,000. It is recognized as the first move in a mammoth merger which will eventually control every steel manufacturing plant in the Dominion.

Minnesota Lutheran Convention.

Fergus Falls, Minn., June 2.—The annual convention of the Minnesota district of the Synodical Norwegian Lutheran church will be held in this city June 10 to 17. The district includes the states of Minnesota and South Dakota, and it is expected that about 1,000 people will be in attendance from outside points.

Joseph Sorg Claims to Have Found Them on his Farm in Klondyke Township

CEMENT WALK IN DEERWOOD

Fisher-Vaughn Co., of Brainerd, Have Contracts Putting In Walks and Curbing

Deerwood, Minn., June 1.—Joseph Sorg claims to have found diamonds on his farm in section 32-47-29 in Klondyke township. It is said he took some of the stones to a jeweler in Brainerd who declared they were diamonds of third water. Mr. Sorg took 30 of his largest specimens to Minneapolis and will there definitely ascertain whether he has struck a ledge of cathedral glass and a prehistoric vein of pop bottle schist or the real diamonds. An expert opinion on the subject will either make him a second Barney Barnato or else leave him in the ranks of the farmer citizens of the county.

The Fisher-Vaughn Co., of Brainerd, have the contracts putting in cement walks and street curbing in the village of Deerwood. They have a large crew of men at work and have their gasoline cement mixer on the ground. The company is now at work on the curb near Hage's store.

The proceedings in the case of Dr. R. J. Sewall vs. C. A. Nelson, were settled amicably and the suit was withdrawn. The whole suit was merely a matter of form and of no other significance.

A new addition is being platted by Cuyler Adams which lies immediately north of the Harry Patterson place. F. A. Glass and a crew of men are surveying the subdivision. The lots will be 100 feet frontage on the lake and 300 feet in depth. Two lots have been purchased by Paul K. Weitzel and one by Dr. Reid.

The work on the Adams hotel is progressing rapidly. The framework for the first floor is in position. Ten carpenters are at work under the supervision of C. C. Adams.

Julius Hage, assistant cashier of the First National bank, went to Madella yesterday to attend the funeral of his aunt.

Hugo Bartelme, of Ossin, Iowa, has assumed a position in the First National bank. He was formerly with the First State bank of Callaway, Minn.

Northwest Well Provided For.

Washington, June 2.—Northwestern projects are generally provided for in the river and harbor bill, which has just been reported to the respective houses by Senator Nelson of Minnesota and Representative Alexander from the conference committee, which has had the measure under consideration several weeks.

AN UP-TO-DATE STOVE
Do you realize there is no longer any reason why you should use a coal range? Oil is cheaper than coal; it is lighter and easier to handle, and gives an intense heat. Provided you have the right stove, oil is more economical, cleaner and less trouble. Have you seen the

New Perfection WICK-BLUE-FLAME Oil Cook-stove

The accompanying illustration gives you only a rough idea of its appearance. You really can't appreciate it until you either use it yourself, or talk to someone who has used it. It does everything that a coal range will do—except heat the room. The New Perfection Oil Cook-Stove will do anything, from heating a kettle of water to cooking a course dinner, but it won't heat a room. It doesn't "smell," it doesn't smoke. It can't get out of order. Light it and it is ready. Turn it down and it is out. Only a woman who knows the trouble of carrying coal and cooking in a hot kitchen can appreciate what it means to have a clean, perfect stove that will cook anything, boil, bake or roast, and yet won't heat the kitchen. How is it done? The flame is controlled in turquoise-blue enamel chimneys, and directed against the bottom of pot, pan, kettle or oven, and only there. The flame operates exactly where it is needed—and nowhere else. With this stove your kitchen is cool.

Cautionary Note: Be sure you get this stove—see that the name-plate reads "New Perfection."
